

ABOUT ME

I am a current Medical Student at Tambov State Medical University. I am Ghanaian, a native British English speaker, with knowledge of American English as a result of American family and friends.

I moved to Russia in 2015, Did an intensive Russian language study for a year at Tambov State University (Language school) and quickly picked up on the Russian language. I now am in my 5th year studying in Russian medium at my University, which requires near native fluency.

I am very passionate about teaching, and have a talent for creating effective lessons plans.
